Hello,

I am interested in applying for the position of personal assistant as advertised on the website searchforwork.com.

I think you should hire me because I'm really good. I am able to use a computer well and I am fluent in German, Spanish and Italian. I am also willing to work long hours if necessary.

Furthermore, I worked as a personal assistant in a sales company for five years. My previous job has given me the opportunity to improve my people skills, as well as learn how to deal with difficult situations.

In addition, I consider myself to be well-organised and reliable.

Give me a call if you've got any questions about my application. I am available for an interview at your convenience. Please, write back soon.

Yours,
Nurul Majid

- D. An Unforgettable Park!

Did you know that you don't have to go to Africa to go on a safari? You can go to Longleat Safari and Adventure Park in the south-west of England and experience the thrill of seeing many different wild animals. I was lucky enough to go there last summer. It was a nice (great) experience, one that I will never forget. Longleat opened in 1966 and was the first safari park outside of Africa. It is located in the nice (marvellous) Wiltshire countryside and visitors can drive through various animal areas such as the 'Lion Country' and 'Tiger Territory'. You can also see nice (amazing) animals like zebras, wolves, elephants and even giraffes there. More importantly, it is now home to all sorts of endangered animals. Apart from seeing all these animals, you can also come into close contact with them. For example, we drove through the park and at one point a group of monkeys jumped on top of our car! It was quite a surprise, but a nice (an exciting) experience. After seeing the monkeys, we visited a cave full of bats. There were so many that we were absolutely surrounded by them! There were so many nice (wonderful) things to see and do at Longleat that we could have spent three days there! If you love nature and you want to escape from routine then why not take a trip to Longleat Safari and Adventure Park? It's truly a nice (an unforgettable) experience!

E. Suggested answer:

2nd paragraph: I agree that carpooling can help reduce the amount of pollution in our city. It would reduce the number of cars on the roads, creating less pollution. Furthermore, there would also be less traffic which is convenient for everyone. Another advantage is that people who decide to start carpooling will spend less money on petrol since they can share the expenses with the others.

3rd paragraph: there are certain drawbacks to carpooling. To begin with, it may be hard to find people to travel with. Also, people would have to spend time picking up and dropping off others, which may sometimes be inconvenient, especially when you're in a hurry. In addition, when you have to share a car with others you can't have any privacy.
